

Daniel “Danny” Cohen is no stranger to the American Traditions Vocal Competition. Since its inception, Danny has been an ardent supporter of the organization. He has served in multiple capacities with the ATC including former Board Chair, multi term board member and in charge of competition production. He rejoins the board for one more term because he believes in the mission of the organization and desires to be part of the continued growth of the competition.

Danny has been a vocalist in the Savannah area for over 3 decades and continues to sing frequently as soloist and choir member with numerous organizations. He is also presently a board member of the Savannah Voice Festival and is a former Board Trustee of Savannah Country Day School. He has served numerous roles at First Presbyterian Church, including serving as an organizer of its well-known Music With A Mission program. Danny has been a trial attorney for over 30 years and presently is a full-time mediator, opening Miles Mediation’s Savannah office in 2016.
