

Laura Camara is an award-winning jazz vocalist and composer from Columbus, Ohio. Laura has performed at top jazz venues and festivals around the world such as The Montreux Jazz Festival, The Boston Pops Jazz Festival, and the Betty Carter Jazz Ahead Program at the John F. Kennedy National Center for the Performing Arts. Laura has also headlined international festivals and events such as The Ubud Village Jazz Festival in Bali, Indonesia and the Jazz For The King Concert for the late King Bhumibol Adulyadej of Thailand.

In addition to live performances Laura has been a featured artist profiled on WGBH Boston's National Public Radio and famed New York City Web Series Capsulocity. In April of 2023 Laura joined forces with the Jake Reed Trio in the recording studio for their debut group album Shades of Ellington, set to be released in the Spring of 2024.

For more information visit www.lauracamaramusic.com