

A native of Atlanta Georgia, Ronald Wilbur graduated from the University of Kentucky with a degree in Vocal Music Education. While studying there, he broadened his knowledge, diversely, in many areas of music, ranging from classroom management to effective stylings of vocal jazz.

Mr. Wilbur has had the opportunity to perform several titular characters such as: Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street (Sweeney Todd), Ragtime (Coalhouse Walker, Jr.) and The Wiz (Lion). Ron was also a featured vocalist on NBC's hit television series, "The Sing-Off" (Season 4) with the University of Kentucky "acoUstiKats."

Ronald is also a recipient of the Rebecca Luker Award for his performance in the 2022 Lotte Lenya Vocal Competition. In addition to performing, Mr. Wilbur leads many sessions and workshops here in the states and abroad, covering the pedagogy of the singer's body, stage presence, and acting techniques. Ron is proud to serve as an educator and arts facilitator for many organizations in Central Kentucky.
